Sir:

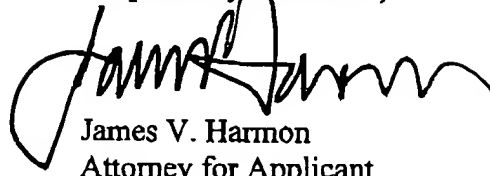

SUPPLEMENTAL AMENDMENT

This is a supplement to the amendment dated June 25, 2002. The purpose of this letter is to report an error in the CLEAN VERSION of the claims, (page 13). The correct CLEAN VERSION of claim 1 is as follows:

CORRECTED CLEAN VERSION OF CLAIM 1

1. An environmentally compatible insect deterrent composition that is non-toxic, devoid of insecticide and safe for humans comprising, a solution or dispersion of a surfactant, said solution or dispersion is a liquid that is adapted to coat out onto an insect, said surfactant being present in an amount effective to interfere with vital functions of the insect and a soluble or dispersible thickening agent that is non-toxic and safe for humans admixed therewith, such that the insect is debilitated or killed thereby when the composition is applied to the body of the insect so as to become coated thereon.

Respectfully submitted,
